– Second Luminous Mystery: The Wedding at Cana

At the wedding at Cana His mother said to the servers,

“Do whatever he tells you.”

Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, “Fill the jars with water.” So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, “Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter.” John 2:5-8 Mary, you saw the needs of others at a time when there should have been abundance. With loving concern, you went to your son and asked for His divine assistance. And so Jesus spoke. With His words, God’s grace came to the ordinary, elevating it and meeting the needs of others by bringing to the world something new.

Help us, Mary. Pray that your Son grants us the grace to have elevated the ordinary within us so that we may share our best to those close to us and those that we have never met. Help transform our daily activity in worldly affairs. Help us to see beyond our immediate needs and wants. Pray that we may instead discern the greater needs of the common good—the needs of all people, of all life, and all creation. Help us to listen to your Son and to be ready to do whatever He tells us in the various circumstances of our daily lives.

Do whatever He tells you
