

The solemnity of All Saints confirms that we, too, can have a place with God, “not because we are good, but because the sanctity of God has touched our life

.... We can compare the saints to the Church windows which allow light to enter in different shades of colour. The saints are our brothers and sisters who have welcomed the light of God in their heart and have passed it on to the world, each according to his or her own hue. But they were all transparent; they fought to remove the stains and the darkness of sin, so as to enable the gentle light of God to pass through. This is life’s purpose: to enable God’s light to pass through: it is the purpose of our life too.” Pope Francis
