

PRAYER FOR LOVE TO FLOW FROM MY HEART

God, help me to be a vessel of love. I ask that the fruits of the spirit would develop within me and everything I say would be filled with peace, love, mercy, and joy. And when I'm faced with difficulties, I pray that my heart would be still and know that you are God. For you fight all my battles and I need only to be silent.

Thank you for giving me the Holy Spirit God. For no argument, conflict, nor temptation can cause me to be unholy when I lean on your divine strength. Through you Abba, I can demonstrate self-control, mercy, grace, forgiveness, and patience. I thank you God for giving me discernment and wisdom to navigate moments of anger, frustration, and offense. Through your help God, I will be a testimony of your great love. I rejoice because I get to partner with you in healing humanity.

God, help me to slow down and love all those that are around me. I want to be still and show others that you are God. Help me to be slow to speak and quick to listen. Help me to speak what you desire to those around me. And guard my tongue father, for I only want to speak what edifies. Remove pride, argument, and self-interest from my heart, so I can be selfless and love others without hindrance.
